The diagram illustrates the relationship between the score estimate and the loss. Three lines are shown for different true scores: -250, 0, and 250. The loss increases linearly as the score estimate deviates from the true score.